

WILLIAM STEVENS - 12.

A. Simply showed him out, way to go down that way.

Q. Had he started out?

A. Yes.

Q. You called him back?

A. No. I said it is a little shorter going down this way.

Redmond Street then Jones Avenue to George Street.

Q. Were these clothes dirty?

A. Frightfully. One suit was mildewed.

Q. Was the one mildewed you had on Thursday night?

A. No.

Q. What character?

A. Just soiled, water spattered around my ankles.

Q. Grease stains?

A. Yes. You know how some people get their clothes dirty.

Q. That was the only kind of dirt on them?

A. Yes.

Q. And grease stains?

A. Yes.

Q. Otherwise than that the suit was not dirty?

A. No, simply needed pressing and some overhauling.

Q. As I understood you, you told the boy to hurry up?

A. Yes.

Q. And that was Saturday afternoon?

A. Saturday evening.

Q. I understood you stating a little while ago you did not recollect what time it was?

A. No I do not know what time.

Q. Do you know what time you gave them to the boy?

A. I was thinking it over to be sure. It was Saturday the day I bought this suit.
